

All of Life is About Relationships | Week 8

Introduction

Jesus said the world will know us by our love. True love is selfless action that places others first and deepens real relationships.

Conversation Starters (10 minutes)

- What's the nicest surprise someone has ever done for you (big or small)?
- What is one way your relationships have improved during this series?

Sermon Notes Review (15 minutes)

What caught your attention, stood out to you, or challenged you from this weekend's teaching?

Watch Video (5 Minutes)

Group Discussion (45 minutes)

1. What is something that you learned in this series on relationships that you are choosing to put into practice?
2. Why do you think showing love in action is often harder than simply saying "I love you"?
3. John 13:34-35 – Jesus commands us to love as He loved
  - What does this reveal about Jesus' character?
  - How is this kind of love different from the world's idea of love?
4. 1 John 3:16-18 – Love is laying down our lives and helping with real needs.
  - What does this passage teach us about God's priorities?
  - How should we act towards others in light of God's love for us?
5. Philippians 2:3-5 – Consider others above yourselves, having the mindset of Christ.
  - How might we "love in action and truth" today?
  - What does this tell us about humility and service?
  - What do you sense God wants you to do in response?
6. This weekend will begin our At the Movies series. This is a great time to invite someone who does not know Jesus to join you for church. Who will you invite?

Prayer (5 minutes)

Close your group time in prayer. You can use these words or your own words:

Lord, thank You for loving us first. Teach us to love selflessly as You did, not just in words but in action. Give us eyes to see needs around us and hearts ready to respond with Your love."
