

Take Back Your Family || Becoming a Better Parent

Group Notes

INTRODUCTION

Parenting is one of the most challenging and rewarding things in life. Parenting is powerful. We all have a massive impact on our kids, either by default or by design.

CONVERSATION STARTERS

1. What are three characteristics you would use to describe your parents? Why?
2. What is a funny memory you have as a kid about your parents?

SERMON NOTES REVIEW

Looking back at your sermon notes from this weekend's teaching, was there anything said that caught your attention, challenged you, or confused you?

GROUP DISCUSSION

1. How are you feeling challenged in your parenting right now? (Or if you are not a parent, what are you struggling with in your sphere of influence?)
2. What is something you are proud of in your parenting (or you admire in other's parenting)?
3. What did you learn from your parents that you want to replicate in your own family?
4. Parenting advice
  - a. What is the worst advice you have been given?
  - b. What is the one piece of advice you would give a new parent?
5. This weekend, Chad and Robert identified three things great parents (and leaders) practice: Wisdom, Humility, and Grace.
  - a. Which of these comes most naturally to you in your parenting/leadership of others?
  - b. Read John 15:12. Which of the 3 practices listed above would you like to work on to help love others like Jesus loves you?

PRAYER

Thank God for his leadership and example to us in how to be a great parent (leader). Pray for one another as we work on the areas of Wisdom, Humility, and Grace.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

- Serving your community together as a small group is one of the best ways your group can grow with one another.
